

Ready...Set...Soar! Preparing for Academic Success

Academic success is no accident. With proper support, every child can enjoy a triumphant school year. In this interactive workshop, parents will receive practical strategies that will encourage children, build confidence and create fertile ground for academic excellence!

Parents will learn:

How to create a home environment that promotes academic success;

How to help children become organized and responsible students;

How to use positive discipline to encourage good work habits;

How to recognize when a child's academic struggles need professional support; and

How to maintain positive communication with teachers and administration.
